

Individual Guidance

I am available to guide individual students who may need to talk about the difficulties in his/her life. I take individual referrals from the students, teachers, and parents. If a student is in need of further counseling (above what we can address here at OLV), I will contact the parent/guardian about my concerns, and provide referrals as needed.